8. Online Fellowship Forums, Prayer request services, and Facebook resources for our guests and members.

There are so many believers who love God and love His kingdom but are not plugged in to a local church. One of our mentors calls these people "the church in exile". Is this you?

God told Mediachurch.net Pastor Russ Walden in 1997 to reach out to such folks and tell them 3 things:

1. You aren't crazy
2. You aren't backslid

3. You aren't alone.

Further the Lord told Russ to extend to you a basis of fellowship that doesn't require you to go back into what the Lord has called you out of. Mediachurch.net is different. Our number one priority is ACCESSIBILITY so that we bring the ministry and fellowship of local church to you on your timetable and at the point of your need.

We do live events regularly, and make on demand video and audio available in several areas of ministry. We are available for something as simple as a pastoral call or if needed prophetic counseling. There is a prayer request page where you can submit your prayer request and know that you will be prayed over.

We maintain a private fellowship forum on Facebook for Mediachurch.net members and guests where you can get to know one another in a LOVING and NON-JUDGMENTAL environment of acceptance and encouragement.

If this draws on your heart I invite you to GO TO THIS LINK:

Read the simple commitment involved in becoming a member and upgrading your access today. If you have already JOINED Mediachurch.net please touch base with us HERE let us know you are out there and wanting to continue your involvement. We appreciate you and count it a privilege to serve you in the things of God.

Sincerely,

Mediachurch.net Pastors Russ and Kitty Walden
